SIERRA DE ARACENA AND PICOS DE AROCHE www.sierradearacena.com

Located in the north of Huelva province, it is known for its large forest extension and a natural and cultural heritage of great interest. The Iberian pig is bred in its extensive pastureland. The pastureland is populated by holm oaks which are replaced by cork oaks in some areas, and Pyrenean oak or chestnut forests in others. While in waterways such as the Múrtigas River, there are abundant black poplars, ash trees, willows and alders, which coexist with an interestingly rich fauna.

MUELLE DEL TINTO www.huelva.es

This is a commercial wharf built by the Rio Tinto company to load material from local mines owned by the Rio Tinto Company Limited. Located on the River Odiel, in the city of Huelva, Spain, it is popularly known as the "Muelle de Riotinto" or "Muelle del Tinto", taking part of the name of the company that built it. Today, it has fallen into disuse, but it can be used for hiking or fishing. It was declared a "Bien de Interés Cultural" (place of cultural interest) in 2003.

THE BRITISH LEGACY IN HUELVA

www.huelva.es

The British presence during the 19th and 20th centuries, attracted by mining in the province, has left an interesting legacy in the capital of Huelva. The Casa Colon Conference Centre former Hotel Colon, the Queen Victoria Quarter, the Riotinto Company Wharf, the Tharsis Pier and Seville Station are the greatest exponents of this legacy, as well as its football club, Real Cub Recreativo de Huelva, the oldest club in Spanish football, whose museum can be visited at the Nuevo Colombino stadium.

SAN MARCOS CASTLE, SANLÚCAR DE GUADIANA

www.castillodesanmarcos.info

Built at the end of the Middle Ages to defend the territory destined for centuries to be the 'River Frontier of the Lower Guadiana, it was a witness to centuries of border struggles with Portugal. In addition, after the guided visit to the Castle, you can enjoy the adventure of crossing the river and the border to Alcoutim, on the Portuguese shore, by launching yourself across its zip line.

RIOTINTO MINING MUSEUM

www.parqueminero.deriotinto.es

The breathtaking views of the Corta Atalaya reveal what was once the largest open-cast mine in Europe. Dedicated mainly to the extraction of copper, it was the most ambitious project of the Rio Tinto Company. In the 'Ernest Lluch' mining museum in Minas de Riotinto you can learn about the more than 5,000 years of mining history of the region and then take a tour of the old tracks aboard restored locomotives and wagons on a breathtaking route.

DOLMEN DE SOTO

www.dolmendesoto.org

Located in the town of Trigueros, this is one of the most important megalithic monuments of Recent Prehistory in Europe. Dating from between 3000 and 2500 BC, its pigments and engravings form a graphic programme that constitutes a narrative of complex readings and interpretations, making it one of the most striking examples of the Neolithic period in southern Spain.

MARISMAS DEL ODIEL NATURAL SITE

www.turismohuelva.org

Located at the confluence of the mouths of the rivers Tinto and Odiel, two kilometres from the capital, this complex of marshes serves as a nesting place for thousands of bird species, making it one of the main birdwatching references in Europe. It has been declared a Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO and one of its main enclaves is the Isla de Enmedio, which is home to one of the largest European breeding colonies of spoonbills, a species in danger of extinction.

BEACHES OF HUELVA

www.turismohuelva.org

Huelva's coastline has more than 120 kilometres of endless beaches of fine, soft, golden, almost white sand, caressed by the salt and air of the Atlantic, which impregnates the character of its people, seafaring and fishing by tradition and history. From the mouth of the Guadiana to the mouth of the Guadalquivir, in the heart of Doñana, the Huelva coast offers wide beaches framed by green pine forests.

HISTORIC-ARTISTIC MONUMENTAL SITE OF NIEBLA

www.niebla.es

The bridge over the river Tinto and numerous remains of the ancient Roman Ilipla remain. The walls of Niebla owe their current style to the Almohad domination, although there are remains from different periods: Tartessian, Roman and Muslim. The Castillo de los Guzmanes (Guzmanes Castle), built on the site of the old Arab citadel after the Reconquest, also stands out. Inside the walled enclosure, the Chapel of San Martín and the Church of Sta. M^a de la Granada, a former Muslim mosque from the 10th-11th centuries, stand out.

EL ROCÍO

www.turismohuelva.org

El Rocío is a small village in the municipality of Almonte (Huelva), located 15 kilometres from Matalascañas, which is accessed by a road that borders the Doñana National Park, giving it incomparable views and unparalleled beauty. It is an area of small, white houses surrounding the Chapel of the Virgen del Rocío, a place of religious fervour and pilgrimage, and which receives more than a million visitors during the Pilgrimage of El Rocío.

DOÑANA NATURAL AREA

www.turismohuelva.org

The Doñana Natural Area is made up of the Doñana National Park and the Doñana Natural Park. It is the largest ecological reserve in Europe and hosts a unique biodiversity of emblematic species such as the Iberian lynx and the imperial eagle, today in danger of extinction. Doñana plays host to marshes, lagoons and streams, reserves and pine forests, rivulets and shores, dunes, beaches and spectacular cliffs. Among its unique landscapes is the moving dune system that runs between Matalascañas and the mouth of the Guadalquivir.

WINE CENTRE

www.turismohuelva.org

The wine region that currently provides the Denominations of Origin "Condado de Huelva" and "Vinagre del Condado de Huelva" is spread over an extensive region located southeast of Huelva province, covering 18 municipalities. A total of 13 wineries are part of this route, where you can discover the details of the entire process for making the wines that formed part of the Discovery of America.

JUAN RAMÓN JIMÉNEZ BIRTH HOUSE AND MUSEUM

www.fundacion-jrj.es

Moguer pays tribute to its Nobel Prize winner for Literature, Juan Ramón Jiménez, in every corner of the town. You can visit the Casa Natal and the Casa Museo Zenobia-Juan Ramón, as the main centres where you can immerse yourself in the life and work of the universal poet. Also of interest are the house in Calle Aceña, Fuentepiña and the literary route through Moguer.

SANTA MARÍA DE LA RÁBIDA MONASTERY AND COLOMBIAN SITES

www.turismohuelva.org

This is a Franciscan monastery in Gothic-Mudejar style built between the 14th and 15th centuries. Christopher Columbus stayed here before leaving for the New World, when he was still preparing his project. It is the starting point of the Lugares Colombinos route, which includes the municipalities of Palos de la Frontera, with the church of San Jorge as its main exponent and the fontanilla, and Moguer, where you can visit the Monastery of Santa Clara.

MUELLE DE LAS CARABELAS

www.diphuelva.es

Located in the enclave of La Rábida, the Museo Muelle de las Carabelas houses reproductions of La Niña, La Pinta and La Santa María, which were built in 1992 to celebrate the 5th Centenary of the Discovery of America. In addition to the replicas of the ships, its main tourist attraction, the Museo Muelle de las Carabelas has an interpretation centre, the medieval quarter and the Isla del Encuentro, referring to the first island where Christopher Columbus disembarked on 12 October 1492.

GRUTA DE LAS MARAVILLAS

www.aracena.es

The great extension of its lakes, the abundance and variety of formations and the length of its development make this underground complex a complex of great beauty and beauty. Discovered at the end of the 19th century, it was in 1914 that it was opened to the public as the first tourist cave in Spain. Stalactitic formations, stalagmites, columns, gourds, lava flows, pisoliths, eccentrics, curtains... a whole world that the persistence of water, stone and time have shaped so that the human imagination can feel the exact dimension of nature.

ROUTE OF THE JABUGO

www.dopjabugo.es

In the heart of the Sierra de Aracena y Picos de Aroche, infinite aromas and flavours await you as you enjoy this paradise. Among the thousand stars in the sky we find one that shines with its own, the ham with Protected Designation of Origin (DOP Jabugo) before Jamón de Huelva. The famous meat of our Iberian pigs, reared in the mountains, is the main ingredient of many of the delicacies that you can taste in every corner of our mountain range.

HISTORIC CENTRE OF ALMONASTER LA REAL

www.almonasterlareal.com
